General Conditions applicable to all permits

- Approval depends, to a large extent, on the attitude of the neighbours
- Runs, yards, pens, sheds and kennels etc. will need to meet all conditions of the Local Law
- Failure to maintain conditions, or the receipt of complaints from neighbours, could result in termination of permit
- The application fee is non-refundable
- The permit expires on June 10 each year and must be renewed annually.

Conditions specific to extra dog/cat permits

- All dogs and cats on the property must be registered with the City of Monash.
- All dogs and cats must be under control or confined to your property at all times.
- All dogs and cats must be desexed (Exhibitors/Registered breeders excepted)
- The permit is only applicable to the original animals, ie. if any of the extra dogs/cats pass away, they must not be replaced (Exhibitors/Registered breeders excepted)
- Once a permit is granted for a specific number of dogs/cats, no further increases in number will be allowed (ie. If you have a permit for four cats, you must not acquire a fifth animal without written consent from the Local Laws Department)
