

Residential Parking Permit

Conditions of Use

Conditions that apply to these permits are

1. A valid current permit must be prominently displayed by hanging it on the rear vision mirror of the vehicle or placed on the dashboard so that it is visible and readable from outside when the vehicle is stationary.
2. Under Reg. 297 of the Road Safety Road Rules the permit must be removed before driving the vehicle to ensure the driver has a clear view of the road and traffic ahead, behind and to each side of the driver.
3. The issue of a permit does not guarantee the availability of a parking space in your street of residence.
4. Permits must not be sold or transferred to another property and permits must not be duplicated in any way.
5. An additional parking permit can be obtained at a cost of $150 and is valid for a year. This permit is not refundable.
6. Residential Parking Permits are invalid if used in business or commercial areas (unless prior approval is granted by Council).
7. Residential Parking Permits do not apply at any time to:
 - Streets other than those indicated on the permit
 - Arterial roads (unless otherwise signed)
 - Off-street car parks
 - Parking areas less than 30 minutes in duration
 - Clearways, Loading Zones, or where prohibitive (red) signs are in force
 - In areas zoned under Monash Planning Scheme as “Business 1” (unless prior approval is granted by Council).
8. Residential Parking Permits are for passenger cars and light vehicles used by the operator for commuter use. Permits are not valid for trailers or heavy machinery such as bobcats etc. or heavy or long vehicles. (Heavy vehicle means a vehicle with a GVM of 4.5 tonnes or more. Long vehicle means a vehicle that, together with any load or projection, is 7.5 metres long or longer).
9. Faded or illegible permits must be replaced. Replacements will only be issued upon return of the original permit to Council. Lost permits may be replaced at a cost at the discretion of Council.
10. A Residential Parking Permit may be suspended or withdrawn by Council.
11. All permits are the responsibility of the person to whom they are issued. Other members of, or visitors to the residence may use permits. Permit holders are responsible for ensuring that other users are aware of, and adhere to the conditions of use of permits.
12. Proof of Residency must be provided with an application. Copies of TWO of the following documents can be provided as proof: i.e. Monash Rates Notice or Lease Agreement, current utility bill in applicant’s name, vehicle registration papers, VicRoads change of address notice or letter on company letterhead (for company vehicles).
13. Where permits are used contrary to any of the terms and conditions, a parking infringement notice may be issued and the permit cancelled. Continued misuse of parking permits may result in all permit privileges being revoked.
