STATISTICS USED IN THIS DOCUMENT

This document uses a range of data and information to help tell the story of the people and communities that make up Monash, unless otherwise stated – statistics and data are publicly available information gathered through the Australian Census or the Australian Bureau of Statistics and is available at: profile.id.com.au/monash

OUR WARDS

Following the 2024 local government election, Monash now has 11 single Councillor wards for the first time.

These are: Gardiners Creek, Blackburn, Gallaghers, Mayfield, Scotchmans Creek, Jells, University, Warrigal, Banksia, Wellington and Waverley Park. The above map shows how these 11 wards make up Monash Council.

ROLE OF COUNCIL

Victoria is made up of 79 councils. These are area-based, representative governments with a legislative and electoral mandate to manage local issues and plan for the community's needs.

The role of Council is to ensure the social, economic, environmental (including the built form) and cultural wellbeing of the community, in accordance with the Local Government Act 2020.

The role of local government has expanded from its original role of building roads, bridges and public buildings and now provides a wide range of community services, such as sport and recreational facilities, community care, health and welfare services.

ABOUT MONASH

The City of Monash is a culturally diverse community in Melbourne's southeast suburbs that is home to close to 200,000 people, making us one of the most populated municipalities in Victoria.

Our municipality includes:

Ashwood, Clayton, Glen Waverley, Hughesdale, Huntingdale, Mount Waverley, Mulgrave, Notting Hill, Oakleigh, Oakleigh East, and Wheelers Hill. Parts of Chadstone, Burwood and Oakleigh South are also included in Monash.

The lands that make up Monash has two Traditional Owner groups, the Wurundjeri Woi-wurrung and the Bunurong peoples, along with a community of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples residing in Monash.

Monash is a predominantly residential area that covers 81km<sup>2</sup> situated 13km from the CBD, with substantial industrial, commercial and recreational areas – including the 127 hectares of open space that makes up Jells Park in Wheelers Hill.

OUR COMMUNITY

In 2021, 50.4% of people in the City of Monash were born overseas – compared with 35.7% in Greater Melbourne.

52% of people use a language other than English at home, but only 8.1% of people identify as speaking English ‘not well’ or ‘not at all’. The three most used languages at home are Mandarin, Greek and Cantonese, with Hindi, Sinhalese and Gujarati having recent signification growth.

We’re also a community that is expected to grow.

HOW WE # WORK, LEARN AND LIVE

Economy, Jobs and Business Insights

92,077 people living in City of Monash in 2021 were employed, of which 59% worked full-time and 35% part-time. In 2021, 5.8% of the City of Monash's labour force were classed as "unemployed" with the unemployment rate decreasing from 8.0% in 2016.

The Monash economy supports an estimated 127,828 jobs with Clayton containing the highest number of jobs. Our municipality is the second largest employment destination after Melbourne's Central Business District.

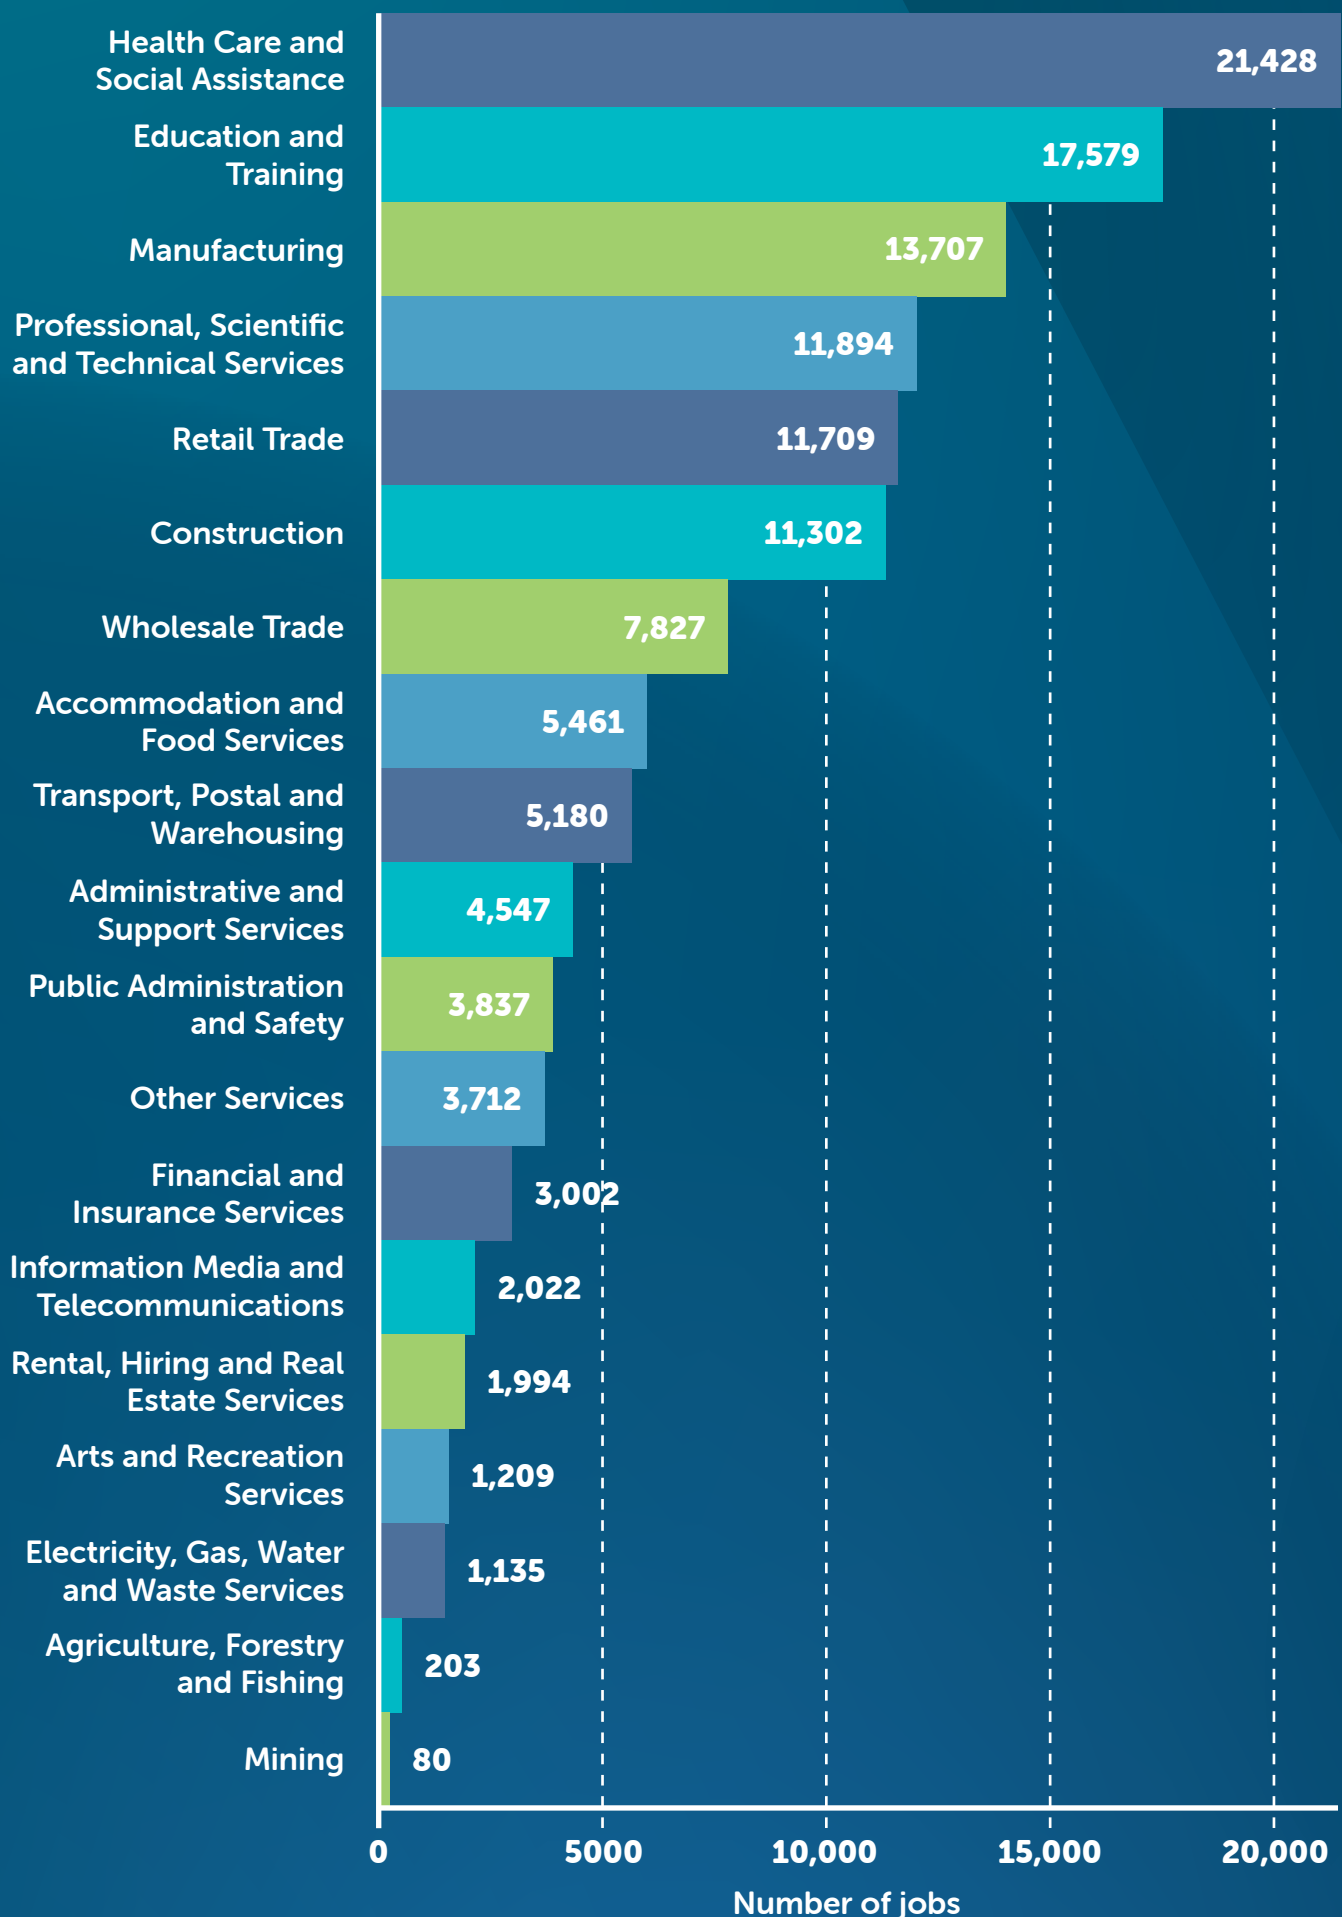

We are home to the Monash National Employment and Innovation Cluster in Clayton, which is home to world class enterprises, including Monash University, Monash Medical Centre, Monash Children's Hospital, the Victorian Heart Hospital, CSIRO, and the Australian Synchrotron. There continues to be significant investment driving the growth of knowledge and technology industries in the Cluster such as the soon to be completed Moderna Vaccine Facility.

The Monash economy generates an estimated $42.380 billion in output. Monash represents 4.9% of the $859.493 billion output generated in Greater Melbourne and 3.9% of the $1.087 trillion output generated in Victoria. Manufacturing is Monash's largest output generating sector, supporting an estimated annual output of $11.457 billion.

When it comes to travelling to work, 4.5% of Monash residents get the train to work (compared to 3.6% of people in Greater Melbourne), 1.5% catch a bus (0.8%), 0.4% ride a bike (0.7%) and 1.7% walk (2%). 31.6% of our residents work from home, compared to 28.8% in Greater Melbourne and a big increase from 4.3% in 2016.
