

Inspirational Women's Leadership

Criteria

Nominations are sought to acknowledge and celebrate the significant achievements women make in Monash.

This category recognises the following:

- » The nominee either lives, works or studies in Monash, or contributes to the Monash community
- » The nominee identifies as a woman
- » A nominee can be recognised for paid or volunteer contributions, however it is noted that extra dedication is required to undertake volunteer work
- » Nominations can be made for one-off contributions, although consistent involvement or dedication may be held in higher regard

This award will be presented to a nominee who:

- » Has made an enduring commitment to advancing gender equity in the community that has brought about significant change
- » Breaks down traditional gender stereotypes about what women can do
- » Is a local champion who has positively impacted others in the community
- » Is a role model to their family, community and/or workplace.

Nomination Guidelines

Here are a few guidelines to assist with your nomination

- » Only one category can be selected (not multiple categories)
- » People who were nominated before can be nominated again
(Previous winners are unable to be nominated for future awards)
- » Ensure contact details are correct
- » Highlight your nominee's achievements and provide as much detail as possible
- » Describe the positive difference the nominee has made to an individual, group, business or the community
- » If relevant, include supporting documentation ie. photos, articles and personal references
- » Try to write at least 3-5 sentences for each question
- » Council staff and Councillors are not able to be nominated.
